

Present at tribunals (CPPDSM4020)

On line learning – study at your own pace

This nationally accredited unit is a discrete area of work and is a highly regarded elective in the “Certificate IV in Strata Community management” qualification.

Description

This course will teach you how to prepare and present a case before a tribunal.

Students will learn how to participate in a conciliation process to resolve a grievance or dispute and act as a witness at a tribunal on a property-related matter.

Content

The course covers the following topics:

- protocols to follow when acting as a witness,
- purpose and role of conciliation in the property industry,
- key requirements of federal, state and local government regulations,
- role and jurisdiction of tribunal that hear matters relating to property operations
- key features of the rules of evidence,
- powers and role of tribunals in property-related hearing and
- tribunal procedures.

Learning outcomes

At the end of the course, participants should be able to:

- apply knowledge of the role and jurisdiction of tribunals that hear matters relating to property operations,
- prepare and lodge applications for a tribunal,
- complete and store documentation relating to the above matters according to agency or organisation requirement.

Suited to

Strata professionals and those who wish to move into this discrete area of work and responsibility within the strata community discipline.

Award

Participants who successfully complete the assessments will be issued with a Statement of Attainment for CPPDSM4020 Present at tribunals.

On line delivery

This unit is offered on line; participants can study at their own pace and time. Course commences on Monday 12th February, 2018.

Fees

$320.00.

How to enrol

To enrol, please follow the steps below:

Google www.shortcourses.rmit.edu.au

Click: A-Z

Click: “P”

Open: “Present at tribunals”

Short courses enquiries: (03) 9925 8111.

For more information

Irene Coleiro

Business Development Project Manager

Vocational Engineering, Health and Sciences

Tel: (03) 9925 4653

Email: Irene.coleiro@rmit.edu.au